Key Website Features of Interest

The LEYM website continues to evolve, providing useful tools and resources for Friends in our region.

Our most recent addition is a "Quaker News Beyond LEYM" that pulls in the latest news posts from a variety of groups such as AFSC, Friends Journal, FGC, School of the Spirit, Pendle Hill, and Quaker Earthcare Witness. Look under the "News" menu tab.

The screenshot displays the LEYM website's 'Quaker News Beyond LEYM' section. The navigation bar includes links for Home, Info, Meetings & WGS, Resources, Programs, LEYM Sessions, and News. A search bar and a 'See Full Site Menu' button are also present. The main content area is organized into two columns. The left column features news items from various sources, including AFSC, Friends Journal, and State House Watch. The right column highlights social media links for LEYM on Twitter and Lake Erie Yearly Meeting, along with recent tweets.

Zoom Quaker Quest 03/26/22

Lake Erie Quakers are asked: "Do we regard our possessions as given to us in trust? How freely do we part with them to meet the needs of others? How do we manage our commitments so that over-commitment, worry, and stress do not diminish our integrity?"

Community Safety Beyond Policing: Gun violence and community safety

by sdipietro on March 28, 2022 at 7:01 pm

Many communities across the country have experienced an uptick in gun violence over the last 2 years at the same time that we are having a robust debate around the role of policing in our society. How has or should the movement to divest from policing and invest in community been responding?

Demilitarizing the Budget: Important even in times of war

by sdipietro on March 24, 2022 at 6:35 pm

As the war in Ukraine adds to the many violent conflicts around the world, governments are responding by increasing military budgets, sending weapons to allies, and calling for escalatory measures against other nations. In 2020, the world spent almost $2 trillion on militaries, and if we don't join [...]

LEYM Website - LEYM.org

to promote economic and environmental justice at home and around

New York Quakers write:
“We repudiate war because it violates the primacy of love, destroys lives that God has given, and tears the fabric of society. War is a test of power, not a search for truth or justice.”
